PROJECTS

DS4H Image Alignment

An ImageJ plugin specialized in co-registration of microscopic bidimensional images for histological examination. Currently in use at IRST institute in Meldola (FC). Built in Java.

Id3King

A web app that collects and rearranges trekking data for easy trips planning. Built in Angular and NodeJs.

INTERESTS

In the spare time tries to make something works with Arduinos and Home assistant, with poor results. Passionate about mycology, trekking and the usual nerds stuff (d&d, w40k and mechanical keyboards).
